

ALL THE NEWS FROM ALL VIRGINIA

SELL SALVAGE OF WRECKED VESSEL

Anchor Chains and Rigging of the Florence L. Lockwood Bring Good Prices.

LAND BRINGS FINE PRICES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ONANCOCK, VA., December 18.—The anchors, chains and rigging of the schooner Florence L. Lockwood, recently wrecked on Williams Shoals, and her cargo of 23,000 feet of pine boards, were sold at Chincoteague Saturday. Good prices were realized.

High figures for land in the county still prevail. Near the courthouse, at public auction, Saturday, a tract of 45 2-4 acres brought $1,025; another of 27 1-2 acres sold for $1,000.

The arrest of parties charged with selling liquor still continues. So far, the possession of a United States revenue license has secured conviction. In Pungotank district, the magistrate imposed a fine of $100. In this district, the fine was $100, with thirty days' imprisonment added. An appeal in each case was taken. In the other districts, trials have not been held. From the books of the collector of internal revenue for this district it has been learned that twenty-nine residents of the county have this license.

The farmers are killing hogs, and some of them report heavy weights. Mr. A. L. Bantling, of Blount, reports one weighing 112 pounds; Captain Edward S. Hall, of Henning Creek, one of 76 pounds, and Mr. Arthur Parks, of the Courthouse, one aggregating 325 pounds.

The directors of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank, of Ouley, have declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent.

A handsome and well-equipped drug store has been added to the business houses of Bell Haven by Mr. James H. Ashby.

The annual election of officers of the local divisions of the Produce Exchange was held throughout the Shore Saturday afternoon. As a rule, but few changes were made. By some action looking to better grading, and more careful handling of shipments, was taken.

LONDON TO OBSERVE IT.

Departure of Vessels Bearing Colonists to Be Commemorated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., December 18.—The three-hundredth anniversary of the sailing of the ship Susan Constant, Discovery and Godspeed, from Blackwater for the New World, will be celebrated in London, as is evidenced by the following copy of an invitation received to-day by the Jamestown Exposition officials:

"The president and governors of the Jamestown Exposition, through Hon. Charles W. Kohlstedt, commissioner-general, requests the pleasure of the company at luncheon, Wednesday, December 13th, at 1.15 P. M., at Savoy Hotel, Strand, London, the three-hundredth anniversary of the sailing of the ship Susan Constant, Discovery and Godspeed from Blackwater, under command of Captains Newport, which expedition was destined to lay the foundation of the American republic at Jamestown, Va., 1607. Kindly reply to Charles F. Pitherick, Honorable Secretary, United States Government Dispatch Agency, 4 Trafalgar Square, W. C."

Do You Know
Christmas is Only a Few Days Off
And You Have Completed Only a Part of Your Purchases?

The great Schmidt Store presents a tempting array of Xmas good cheer—Imported and Domestic Groceries, Fruits, Confections and delicacies of all kinds—and in every department the stock is complete. Our efforts to furnish our patrons the finest and largest stock in our history, has placed this store ahead of any in Richmond in the excellence, variety and quality of goods.

It's the largest and finest stock in our history, but is being rapidly depleted. We suggest that you order to-day.

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

Our Wine Cellar

Contains products from such parts of the globe as supply the best quality.

Champagnes, Claret, Rhine and Moselle Wines, White Wines, Sauternes, Burgundies, Ports, Sherries, Madras, Brandy, Rums, Irish, Scotch and American Whiskies, Gin, Scotch and English Ales, Irish Porter, Cocktails, Bitters, Beers, Mineral Waters.

Nuts, Fruits, Candies.

Selected, Choice Puffed and Layer Figs, Malaga Grapes, Oranges, Lemons, Raisins in all the popular styles, finest Lechons and Glace Citron, all varieties of Almonds, Italian Chestnuts, Palm Nuts, Peanuts, Filberts, Dates, Walnuts. All choice and the best that money can buy.

Our stock of Christmas Candies embraces Chocolates, Bon-Bons, Creams, Broken Candy and many other varieties selected and especially appropriate for the Holidays. All guaranteed pure and wholesome.

Cigars.

All the popular Imported and Key West Cigars, especially packed for the Holiday trade. Good Cigars make good Xmas presents for men and are appreciated.

Hermann Schmidt

The Big Grocery Store on Broad Street.

Phones 369 and 4197.

King Quality Shoes

What kind of a man do you suppose wears the shoes pictured above? Can't you instantly form a pretty correct estimate of his appearance? You see at once that he is well and stylishly dressed because his feet are correctly shod.

This simply shows the importance of perfect-fitting, well-made, stylish shoes. Well-dressed men realize this fact when they buy King Quality Shoes. They know they are getting exactly that extra touch of style and distinction which perfect taste in wearing apparel demands.

POWELL BROS., 1541 E. Main Street.

ARNOLD SHOE CO., MAKERS, NORTH ABINGTON, MASS.

DISMISSES SUIT AGAINST SEABOARD

Company Pays Plaintiff $100. Tucker Ruffin May Be Insane. Dr. Burke Named.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., December 18.—A $1000 suit of R. Butterworth & H. Co. against the Seaboard Air Line Railway was dismissed yesterday by Judge Watson, of the Dinwiddie Circuit Court, by agreement of counsel, the railway company paying the plaintiff $100.

The suit was brought several years ago, the plaintiffs claiming that the railway company had failed to keep an agreement to call by the name of "Butterworth" the station now known as "Dewitt." R. H. Mann and William H. McWhorter represented the plaintiff, and W. H. McKenney, the railroad.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court, of shooting and robbing Warren Brown, postmaster and merchant at Hebron, in that county, was not argued yesterday. A commission of lunacy was ordered to inquire into the prisoner's sanity, and their report will be heard before the motion for a new trial is argued.

Dr. Joseph M. Burke, a prominent physician of this city, has been appointed physician to the city jail to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. James W. Claiborne. The appointment was made by Judge J. M. Mallen, of the Hustings Court.

The motion for a fourth trial for Tinker Ruffin, the negro recently convicted in the Dinwiddie